Dear Mr. Leshner:

On April 17, 2001, you were notified that a review of the above-referenced report(s) raised questions as to specific contributions and/or expenditures, and the reporting of certain information required by the Federal Election Campaign Act.

Your April 27, 2001 response is incomplete because you have not provided all the requested information. For this response to be considered adequate, the following information is still required.

-On Schedule B of your report, you have disclosed contributions to or expenditures made on behalf of a federal candidate for which you have failed to clarify the office sought (House, Senate or President). Please amend your report to clarify the office sought.

-Schedule A of your report discloses contributions received after the General Election which are designated for the general. Your response states that "these contributions were delivered to the Morristown Post Office prior to the General Election, however, they were not placed in our Post Office Box until two weeks after being delivered to the same Post Office."

A contribution is considered to be made when the contributor relinquishes control over the contribution. A contribution that is mailed to the candidate, to an authorized committee of the candidate or an agent of an authorized committee of the candidate, will be considered to have been made on the date of the postmark. Envelopes should be retained for the committee's
